

Local Control = Lower Rates, More Reliability

The City of Granbury Utility is owned and controlled by the citizens and ratepayers in our community. This "Public Power" model of ownership and operation of our utilities means that decisions are made locally - by people that live in the community with input from the community! This model results in a more reliable delivery of energy when compared to investor-owned systems. #CommunityOwned #MuniPower #ReliablePower

www.granbury.org/munipower